PRESENTATION OF ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE AND RACE

The Sammarinese Cycling Federation, organizes for the year 2018 an international UCI race of MTB Cross Country Olympic Class 2 named TITANO XCO 2018.

Following the experience gained in the European event of the XVII Games of the Small States of Europe, which took place at the end of May 2017 in San Marino, the Organizing Committee presents the Cross Country Olympic circuit, placed in the natural setting of the Park of Montecchio; a spectacular circuit, widely appreciated by bikers and public.

The race, in its first edition, will be the second stage of the Internazionali d'Italia Series, an "historic" event for the circuit that for the first time will land abroad, in the Republic of San Marino, "the ancient land of freedom".

The track, mostly permanent, develops in the park and undergrowth and is characterized by single tracks, natural and artificial obstacles; is close to the Fonte dell'Ovo Sports Center, a sports complex equipped with all the facilities, services and spaces suitable for a big event; near the start area a big space will be available for an Expo area and a Team Area such as parking and camper area for public and visitors.

LOCATION

The cult of Saint Marino, which dates back to the credit of having founded the Republic, is widespread and deep-rooted. The legend tells us the shape of this stone mason who came from his native island of Rab in Dalmatia, he went up on Mount Titano and founded a small community of Christians persecuted for their faith at the time of Emperor Diocletian. San Marino has a tradition of exceptional hospitality at all times. In this land of freedom country has never denied the right to asylum and aid to persecuted by misfortune or tyranny, whatever their condition and their ideas. During the Second World War San Marino hosted over 100,000 refugees. Today the Republic of San Marino an independent, democratic and neutral, is the oldest in the world and continues to remain faithful to ancient traditions, while sensitive to the demands of progress. The territory of the Republic of San Marino covers an area of 61 sq. km., San Marino, where 30,000 residents and encompasses a landscape of extraordinary beauty

The flag of San Marino is blue and white horizontally with the coat of arms of the Republic. The emblem consists of a shield which depicts three mountains topped by three towers feathered. On both sides there is a branch of laurel and oak tied down by a ribbon with the motto "Libertas" a crown and the top symbol of sovereignty.
